

Evropski pokret
Srbija

As part of the “Serbian Visions” event, organized by the Serbo-German Commerce Association, Youth Forum of the European Movement in Serbia organized panel discussion on the topic: “Youth Entrepreneurship: EU models of cooperation between business and civil sector”. The panel discussion was held on Saturday, May 16th at the premises of Radisson Blu Old Mill Hotel in Belgrade.

Panelists on the discussion were Mr Darko Radicanin, Executive Director of the Junior Achievement Serbia, who elaborated more on the current state of affairs of youth entrepreneurship in Serbia in the context of the European integration, Mr Aleksandar Gracanac, director of the Centre for small and medium enterprises at the Serbian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, who presented to the audience policy framework of the youth entrepreneurship in Serbia and Mr Darko Mandic, young entrepreneur, who tried to motivate present youngsters with his own bright example of a young businessman willing to promote spirit of entrepreneurship among Serbian youth. The panel was moderated by the President of the Youth Forum, Mr Gavrilo Nikolic.

Evropski pokret
Srbija

Two hours passed in a moment with a lot of questions and comments coming from the audience. We sincerely hope that you have enjoyed the discussion and that you will be joining us next time when we organize similar event!

